Explanation of Responses:

1. The reporting person simultaneously sold and purchased the same number of shares in order to move the shares between personal accounts. These transactions may be deemed to be matchable under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Because the purchase price exceeded the sale price for the transactions reported herein, no profit was realized by the reporting person. The reporting person has agreed to voluntarily disgorge to Texas Pacific Land Corporation any profits realized from matchable transactions occurring within less than six months of the reported transactions.
