Below is the text of an e-mail sent by Eric Oliver to the trustees of TPL on April 18, 2019:

Dear Dave and John:

I note that on your website you have raised the possibility that if elected I would file a lawsuit to compel the Trust and its shareholders to pay for my proxy campaign. You can rest assured that I will not bring any such lawsuit to compel expense reimbursements—that is not the way I do business. If I were to request reimbursement of expenses, the decision will rest on you two and I will trust that at the time you will do what is right for TPL investors.

Sincerely,

Eric Oliver
